1. INTRODUCTION:

Insider trading means dealing in securities of a company listed/traded on any stock exchange in India based on, or when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

With a view to govern the conduct of insiders on matters relating to insider trading, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) had formulated Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 (hereinafter referred to as 'The Regulations').

Sub-regulation (1) of Regulation 8 requires all listed companies to formulate and publish on its website, code of Practices and Procedures for fair Disclosure of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information by adopting the minimum standards as set out in Schedule A to the Regulations.

Power Mech Projects Limited (PMPL) has formulated this Code of Conduct for Regulating, Monitoring and Reporting of Trading by Insiders (Code). All the Directors, Designated Persons, Officers and other connected persons of PMPL are governed by the Code.

Accordingly the Board of Directors of PMPL has formulated the Fair Disclosure Code.

All the Directors, Designated Persons, Officers and other connected persons of PMPL are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Regulations and the Code.

The Company endeavours to preserve the confidentiality of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information (UPSI) and to prevent misuse of such information. The Company is committed to transparency and fairness in dealing with all stakeholders and in ensuring adherence to all laws and regulations.

Every Director, Officer, Designated Person and connected person of the Company has a duty to safeguard the confidentiality of all such UPSI obtained in the course of his or her work at the Company. No Director, Officer, Designated Officer and Connected persons may use his or her position or knowledge of the Company to gain personal benefit or to provide benefit to any third party.

This Code shall apply to all Directors, Officers, Designated persons and connected persons of the Company and the Company hereby stipulates that this code of conduct is to be complied by all Directors, Officers, Designated persons and connected persons.

2. Scope:

PMPL endeavours to preserve the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI) and to prevent its misuse. To achieve these objectives, and in compliance with the aforesaid Regulations, PMPL has adopted this Fair Disclosure Code.

This Code ensures timely and adequate disclosure of UPSI which would impact the price of its securities and to maintain uniformity, transparency and fairness in dealing with all its stakeholders.

PMPL is committed to timely and accurate disclosure based on applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

The Board shall also be responsible to ensure that such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trials to ensure non-tampering of such database.

5.3 Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

1. No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information;

When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession;”

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following: –

- i. the transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of this Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- ii. The transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the UPSI without being in breach of regulation 3 and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained by either person under sub-regulation (3) of regulation 3 of these regulations.
- iii. the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- iv. the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was predetermined in compliance with applicable regulations
- v. in the case of non-individual insiders: –
 - a) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and

- b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the Code and the regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
 - vi. the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with the procedure hereinafter specified.
2. In the case of connected persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, shall be on such connected persons.

6. Internal Code of Conduct to Regulate, Monitor and Report trading by Insiders:

The Code of Conduct is formulated to regulate, monitor and report trading by Designated persons and their immediate relatives towards achieving compliance with SEBI regulations, adopting the minimum standards set out in Schedule B thereto, without diluting the provisions thereof, in any manner.

6.1 Designated persons and their immediate relatives on the basis of their functional role ("designated persons as defined in clause 3.8 of this Code") in the Company shall be governed by the following internal code of conduct.

6.2 They may execute trades subject to compliance with this Code and SEBI Regulations.

6.3 Need to know:

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated, provided or allowed access, to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

(i) "need to know" basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.

(ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

Limited access to confidential information:

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

7. Trading Plan:

1. An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan and present it to the compliance officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan

7.1 Trading plan shall:-

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the issuer of the securities and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

7.2 The Compliance Officer shall review the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

7.3 The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced if any UPSI in possession of the insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation and in such event the Compliance Officer shall confirm that the commencement ought to be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information.

7.4 Upon approval of the trading plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

8. Trading Window and Window Closure:

- i. The trading period, during which trading on Stock exchanges is permitted as hereinafter provided is called "trading window";
- ii. The trade restriction period can be, inter alia, closed from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after the declaration of financial results
- iii. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.
- iv. When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the Company's securities in such period.
- v. All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred to in Point No. (ii) Above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.
- vi. In case of ESOPs, exercise of option may be allowed in the period when the trading window is closed. However, sale of shares allotted on exercise of ESOPs shall not be allowed when trading window is closed.

8.2 The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated Persons of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

8.3 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, which shall be forty-eight hours after the information, becomes generally available.

9. Pre-Clearance of Trades:

All Designated Persons, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company when the trading window is open and if the value of the proposed trades is above Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value), should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer for each transaction. The pre-clearance procedure shall be hereunder:

- i. An application may be made in the prescribed Form (Annexure 1) to the Compliance officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Specified Person/Designated Person intends to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by the Compliance Officer in that behalf.
- ii. A Declaration (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Specified Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or is not in possession of "Price Sensitive Information" up to the time of signing of the Declaration.
 - b) That in case the Specified Employee has access to or receives "Price Sensitive Information" after the signing of the Declaration but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall forthwith inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she shall refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public and after a lapse of 48 hours thereof.
 - c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- iii. Before granting pre-clearance in form (Annexure 3), the Compliance Officer shall have due regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- iv. All Specified Persons/Designated Persons shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within seven trading days from the date of the approval of pre-clearance. The Specified Persons/Designated persons shall file within 2 (two) days of the execution of the deal, the details of such deal and changes in the holdings, with the Compliance Officer in the prescribed form. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed (Annexure 4).
- v. If the order is not executed within seven trading days from the date the approval is given, the designated person must seek fresh pre-clearance of the transaction.
- vi. All Specified Persons/Designated Persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction (shall not execute a contra trade) i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next six months following the prior transaction. All Specified Persons/Designated Persons shall also not take positions in derivative transactions in the shares of the Company at any time. In case any contra trade is executed inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act. However, such restriction shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

- vii. The Compliance Officer may lift the ban on contra trade in case of sale of securities in personal emergency after recording reasons for the same. However, no such sale will be permitted when the Trading window is closed.

10. Disclosure of Trading by Insiders:

10.1 The disclosures to be made by any person under this Code shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions.

10.2 The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities, if any permitted by law and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

10.3 The disclosures made under this Clause shall be maintained by the Company for a minimum period of five years, in such form as may be specified by SEBI;

10.4 Initial Disclosure

- a) Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

10.5 Continual Disclosures

- a) Every promoter, member of the promoter group, designated person and director of every company shall disclose to the Company the number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of ten lakh rupees or such other value as may be specified by SEBI;
- b) The Company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

Explanation. — It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub-clause, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause 10.5(a).

10.6 Disclosures by other connected persons.

The Company may, at its discretion require any other connected person or class of connected persons to make disclosures of holdings and trading in securities of the Company in such form and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with SEBI regulations and this Code.

10.7 All Designated Persons shall disclose their holdings including their immediate relatives at the end of each Quarter (Annexure 5).

10.8 Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) immediate relatives
- b) persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship as defined in the regulation
- c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

In addition, the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

11. Penalty for Contravention of the Code of Conduct:

11.1 Every Specified Person/Designated Person/Insider shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the Code (including to the extent the provisions hereof applicable to his/her immediate relatives).

11.2 Any Specified Person/Designated Person/Insider who trades in securities or communicates any information for trading in securities, in contravention of this Code may be penalised and appropriate action may be taken by the Board of directors of the Company.

11.3 Designated Persons/Specified Persons/Insider who violates the Code shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Board of directors of the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, claw back ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, etc.

11.4 The action by the Company shall be in addition to any action that may be taken by SEBI in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

11.5 In case it is observed by the Board of directors that there has been a violation of SEBI regulations, they shall inform SEBI promptly.

12. Prohibition of Insider Trading under Companies Act, 2013:

The relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013 which every person shall comply with is as under:

9.2 Disclosure/dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information with special reference to Analysts, Research Personnel and Institutional Investor.

The Directors, Officers, and Employees of the Company shall provide only public information to the analysts/research personnel/large investors like financial institutions, private equity etc.

In case, non-public information is proposed to be provided, by the Directors, Officers and Employees, the person proposing to provide information shall consult Chairman/Managing director and CFO in advance. The CFO in consultation with the Chairman/Managing director in such cases, shall ensure that the information provided to the analysts/research personnel/investors as above is made public simultaneously with such disclosure.

9.3 Handling of unanticipated questions:

The Company shall take extreme care and caution when dealing with analysts' questions and defer issues outside the intended scope of discussion.

Managing director/ CFO should tackle the unanticipated questions carefully. The unanticipated questions may be noted and considered response may be given later on in consultation with the Board/Chairman/Managing director, as the case may be. If answer to any question requires dissemination of Price Sensitive Information, the Chairman/Managing director/CFO/Compliance Officer shall ensure that the same shall be disseminated to the Stock Exchanges and uploaded on the website of the Company to make it generally available, before responding to the question raised by the analysts, research personnel etc.

9.4 Recording of Discussions

All the analyst, broker or Institutional Investor meetings shall be attended by Senior Company Officers who will report to the Chief Investor Relations Officer. The Compliance Officer, in order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, shall arrange for recording the discussions at the meeting and the audio file is uploaded on the web site of the Company till it is substituted by the transcripts of the same.

Simultaneous Release of Information:

Whenever the Company proposes to organize meetings with investment analysts/institutional investors, the Company shall post relevant information on its website after every such meeting.

The Chief Investor Relations Officer in consultation with the Chairman/Managing director shall get the text of the calls to be posted on the Company's website. Presentations shall not contain unpublished price sensitive information and the same shall be placed on the website of the Company and provided to the Stock exchanges for placing on their websites.

9.5 Medium of Disclosure/dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information:

The unpublished price sensitive information filed by the Company with the Stock exchanges under the listing regulations shall also be posted on the Company's website.

9.6 Norms for installation of Chinese wall procedures to control the flow of information and to prevent the misuse of confidential information.

The following departments/units/heads are treated as separate areas for the purpose of Chinese wall procedures:

Finance & Accounts Department
Secretarial Department
Legal Department
Administration Department
Commercial Department
Purchase Department
Marketing Department
IT Department
Subsidiaries- Domestic/Overseas

The employees in the respective areas shall not communicate any price sensitive information to the other areas. In exceptional circumstances the employees in the restricted areas may be brought 'over the wall' and given confidential information on the basis of 'need to know' criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

Compliance Officer or any KMP alone are entitled to cross the wall.
